

Abstract of the Disclosure

In a group communication system, ~~it makes possible~~ a mobile station, that is not currently under a group communication, ~~to~~ can participate in ~~the~~ a group communication. ~~Where a~~ A location registration signal is transmitted to a base station ~~3—5~~ upon turning on the power of a mobile station or when a mobile station ~~in communication over a~~ moves ~~through plurality of~~ between communication zones ~~entered a group communication objective wireless zone due to hand over or the like, providing a~~ A group communication number ~~for~~ is sent from the mobile station and is examined against ~~by~~ a group-communication group number controlling register in a control station, ~~examining~~ The examination determines the presence or absence of a group communication call corresponding to the group-communication number sent by ~~of~~ the mobile station, ~~notifying~~ Notification information on a relevant call, if present, is sent to the mobile station, which can then ~~to~~ participate in the group communication ~~in the course thereof~~.